

Often just one mouthful, a tapa can hold immense satisfaction and is the basis of the experience and memories of all travelers. So much more than “just a Tapas bar”, Flavours of the World gives a unique opportunity to diners to travel through the world, experiencing and discovering the food, essences, herbs and spices in delightful little parcels, all in one meal, best shared with friends and family, and can be as light or as extensive a meal as each traveler wishes. Enjoy!

Welcome to the Fish Market! We offer you a daily fresh fish and seafood display, market style, on a huge pile of shaved ice, so each guest may choose from the fresh catch of the local fishermen, and in the open show cooking, discuss with the chef exactly how you would like it cooked... or let the chef advise and recommend! With fantastic sea views, dining at the Fish Market is an original and unforgettable experience and delight for the taste buds for those who truly enjoy all the sea's bounty, making adepts even of children and others who normally do not choose fish!

The bakery is often the morning and afternoon meeting place of a small town or neighborhood. The Marble bakery is a bit more than that: a very cozy, warm, inviting place for resort guests but also our friendly neighbours, to sample coffee and bakery specialties from around Europe... Also, simple, home cooked, feel good food at affordable prices: a place to come back to again and again.
